

Grade Level	Art Week Nov 7th ongoing
K Gratitude Project	Standard(s): Engage in creative process w/elements of art focusing on lines and colors LT: I can create gratitude monster for school mural. Model how to visualize a drawing based on seeing images. Read “Where The Wild Things Are” and .discuss steps to create our own monster. Lesson/Activity: Draw monsters and write who we are grateful for. Color/Paint.
1st Gratitude Project	Standard(s): Engage in creative process w/elements focusing on lines, shapes, colors. LT: I can create a gratitude print. Read “Where the Wild Things Are” showing creativity through imagination and giving gratitude in art. Learn new medium printmaking Love prints.Discuss proper ways to care for materials and clean up. Lesson/Activity: Model process of drawing a styrofoam print and painting image. Proper handling of materials.
2nd Gratitude Project	Standard(s):): Engage in creative process w/elements focusing on lines, shapes and colors.. LT: I can create a print using styrofoam plate and markers and pens. SC: Discuss printmaking and proper ways to clean art room after collecting materials and creating our project. . Lesson/Activity: : Model printing on styrofoam and taking image from plate to paper.

3rd Gratitude Project	Standard(s): Engage in creative process w/ elements of line, color, and shape. LT: I can create a printmaking art project with styrofoam. .Lesson/Activity: Understand process of creating print to make artwork and proper clean up. .
4th Gratitude Project	Standard(s): Engage in creative process w/elements of lines, colors, and shapes.. LT: I can create op art rainbow 3D heart. Gain confidence in art techniques and collab with schoolwide mural.
5th Gratitude Project	Standard(s):): Engage in creative process w/elements of line, color, shape LT: I can create a 3D op art Heart and show gratitude by recreating KG monsters. Other activity would be portrait of staff of school who I am grateful for and why. Lesson/Activity: Understand process of creating with different mediums to collab for schoolwide mural project and clean up materials. Create texture and meaning in art work,.